

SUBSCRIPTION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. SCOPE. By accessing, using, downloading, installing, or copying the System, and/or accessing or using the Services, Customer expressly agrees to and accepts the Terms on behalf of itself and its Authorized Users and enters into a binding agreement with Wesco, and represents and warrants that it has the full authority to bind itself and its Authorized Users to the Terms. If Customer is accepting the Terms on behalf of another person or other company or entity, Customer represents and warrants that Customer has full authority to bind that person or company or entity to the Terms. Such representations are material to Wesco's agreeing to provide Customer access and use of the System and Services. If Customer does not agree to the Terms, Customer must not download, install, copy, access, or use the System and must not access or use the Services, and Company must immediately notify Wesco to return the System and cancel the Services without accessing or using the Services. Customer must ensure that its Authorized Users comply with the Terms and is responsible for its Authorized Users compliance with or breach of the Terms. If a conflict arises between or among the Terms, the Application, and the SOW, the Terms shall prevail unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by authorized representatives of the parties. Any additional, preprinted or different terms contained on any Order, portal, or other communication (electronic or otherwise) from Customer purporting to apply shall be deemed void and unenforceable unless expressly agreed and signed in writing by authorized representatives of both parties. For terms governing access to and use of the Sites, please refer to Wesco's Terms of Use published on the Sites. The Terms shall apply to any quote issued by Wesco to Customer, any Order issued by Customer to Wesco, and any SOW regarding the System and/or Services, regardless of whether or not any of such documents reference the Terms. In the event Customer purchased access and use of the System and/or Services from an Authorized Partner, the Terms and EULA apply to Customer's access and use of the System and/or Services and prevail over any inconsistent provisions in Customer's agreement with such Authorized Partner.

In addition, Wesco does not offer the System and Services to individuals who intend to use such System and Services for personal, family, or household purposes. By placing an Order, Customer represents and warrants that any System and Services use shall be made for business purposes only and not for personal, family, or household purposes.
- 3.7. Product depictions, including color, on the Sites or any other marketing collateral are for illustrative purposes only. Access to the Sites does not constitute the right to purchase, access or use the System or Services. Wesco reserves the right to cancel, without any liability, any and all Orders resulting from such pricing errors, even if Customer has an SOW from Wesco.
4. ORDERS.
- 4.1. Except as expressly permitted herein, an Order is non-cancelable. Wesco has the right, in its sole discretion, to cancel, accept, or reject any Order, in whole or in part, at any time. Any change requested by the Customer to any aspect of the scope of an Order must be agreed in writing by both parties and may result in a price and/or delivery adjustment as determined by Wesco. If Wesco authorizes that all or part of a Subscription be terminated or suspended by modification, rescission or as otherwise provided in the Terms, Customer shall pay termination charges equal to Wesco’s costs associated with the Order or SOW, as determined by Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, plus a reasonable profit on the entire Order. - 5.1. Customer shall provide Wesco with sufficient, free, safe, and timely access to its and its Authorized Users’ premises and systems as required to provide the Services. Customer warrants that the premises where the Services will be performed will comply with all applicable federal, state, and local occupational safety, welfare, and health standards, rules, and regulations. Customer agrees to ensure the health, safety, and welfare of Wesco’s personnel when on Customer’s and its Authorized User’s premises including, but not limited to providing and maintaining premises and systems that are, so far as is reasonably practicable, safe and without risks to health. Wesco may, in its sole discretion, use subcontractors to perform its contractual obligations under the Terms. If Wesco uses subcontractors, Wesco will be solely responsible for ensuring that they comply with their respective contractual requirements. Customer shall not supervise or direct the performance of any Wesco subcontractors. Wesco or Wesco’s subcontractors, when applicable, shall obtain and maintain the necessary licenses, certifications, and permits, specialty or otherwise, required to provide the Services. If Wesco’s performance of any of its obligations is prevented or delayed by Customer: (a) Wesco shall, without limiting its other rights or remedies under the Terms or as otherwise provided by law or equity, have the right to suspend or terminate performance of the Services; and (b) Customer shall be liable for any costs and expenses sustained or incurred by Wesco as a result thereof. Without limiting the foregoing, completion times provided by Wesco are only estimates. Customer expressly consents to Wesco providing the Services to Customer, and registering, claiming, and/or associating Customer’s rooms, buildings, devices, and accounts as part of the System or Services. Upon written notice and subject to the Terms, Customer has the right to terminate, at any time, the registration, claim, or association of Customer’s rooms, buildings, and devices as part of the System or Services. Such termination shall serve as Customer’s termination of its Subscription pursuant to section 9.4. Customer acknowledges and agrees that installation of the Products is not included as part of the Services provided by Wesco under the Terms or any Subscription, unless otherwise explicitly agreed to by both parties in the SOW.
- 5.2. Wesco shall provide Support to Customer in accordance with the SOW. The Support terms specified in the SOW may be updated from time to time; however, Wesco will not materially reduce the level of performance, functionality, or availability of the Support during the Subscription Period.

Customer shall pay any Wesco invoice within 30 days from the invoice date, unless otherwise explicitly stated in the SOW, Subscription Confirmation, or Wesco’s invoice, as applicable, without any right to offset, counterclaim, holdback, or deduction. All Payments paid by, or on behalf of, Customer hereunder shall be non-refundable. All Payments shall be delivered to Wesco at its address specified on Wesco’s invoice (or such other place as Wesco, in writing, directs) without notice or demand. Wesco reserves the right to require guarantees, security or

- payment from Customer in advance of shipment. In the event Customer fails to timely pay any invoice by the due date or if an Insolvency Event (as defined below) occurs, Wesco may change the payment terms on any future Orders and/or the entire outstanding balance due to Wesco for the Subscription Term shall be accelerated and become due in full immediately. Late payments are subject to interest of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month or the maximum allowable charge and/or interest allowed by applicable laws shall be applied to all past due accounts commencing from the due date of the invoice until paid. Wesco shall also be entitled, in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity, to suspend performance of the Services and to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and/or other expenses incurred collecting all outstanding sums from Customer or otherwise enforcing or successfully defending the Terms, regardless of whether a lawsuit is filed. Wesco may set off any amount due from Customer from any amounts due to Customer. Wesco reserves the right to convert any payment into electronic funds at its discretion.
- 6.3. Customer shall be responsible for, as and when due, and shall indemnify and hold Wesco harmless from and against all present and future taxes, duties, levies, tariffs, and any other governmental charges however designated, or any increases therein (including, without limitation, sales, use, leasing and stamp, value-added, goods and services, digital services, personal property, and gross receipts based taxes and license and registration fees (collectively, "Transaction Taxes")) and amounts in lieu of such taxes and charges and any penalties or interest on any of the foregoing, imposed, levied upon, in connection with, or as a result of the purchase, ownership, delivery, possession, or use of the System or Service, or based upon or measured by the Services, Subscription Fees, or any other payments made hereunder. Such Transaction Taxes shall be due whether or not included on the invoice. All payments due from Customer will be made free and clear and without deduction for any present and future taxes imposed by any taxing authority. If Customer is required by applicable law to deduct or withhold income taxes from amounts payable to Wesco under the Terms, Customer will remit, and provide Wesco with evidence that Customer has remitted, such withholding taxes to the appropriate taxing authority. Customer shall provide Wesco with proof of any exemption from Transaction Taxes when placing an Order.
- 6.4. If Wesco extends business credit to Customer under an Application, Wesco's Business Credit Terms published on the Sites, as amended from time-to-time, shall apply and are expressly incorporated herein by reference.
- 6.5. If the SOW includes an option to purchase the Products at the end of the Subscription Period, or if this Agreement is otherwise deemed at any time to be one intended as security, Customer grants Wesco a security interest in the Products (and all accessions thereto and substitutions therefore) and the proceeds from the sale, lease, or other disposition thereof to secure all indebtedness owing under the SOW. Customer authorizes Wesco to file a financing statement or equivalent document (and any and all amendments thereto) with respect to the Products and hereby appoints Wesco as Customer's attorney-in-fact to do all acts or things that Wesco may deem necessary to protect Wesco's title and interest hereunder. If the SOW does not include an option to purchase the Products at the beginning or end of the Subscription Period, the parties agree that any filing of a financing statement is for precautionary purposes to give public notice of Wesco's ownership of the Products only and shall not be construed as evidence of a transfer of title to Customer or a secured transaction.
7. DELIVERY. TITLE.
- 7.1. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, (i) all Product shipments shall be FOB shipping point, and (ii) Wesco may, in its sole discretion, use any commercial carriers and method and route of transportation for shipment of the Products. Customer shall be responsible for shipping charges, including all applicable freight, shipping, insurance, and handling charges unless otherwise agreed to in writing. Software and access to the Platform may be delivered electronically. Customer's requested delivery or need by date is subject to review and approval by Wesco. Shipping dates or other applicable performance dates are estimated on the basis of prompt receipt of all required and detailed information, specifications, drawings, and approvals from Customer. In the event Customer, verbally or in writing, confirms a delivery date with Wesco but subsequently suspends the Order or is unable to accept delivery, Customer shall reimburse Wesco for all costs and expenses Wesco incurs as a result thereof, including, but not limited to, reasonable storage costs. No delay in the shipment or delivery of any Products relieves Customer of its obligations under the Terms. Wesco reserves the right to make partial shipments without liability or penalty. Customer shall pay for the units shipped whether such shipment is in whole or partial fulfillment of an Order or SOW.
- 7.2. Unless explicitly stated in the SOW, the Products are, and shall at all times be and remain, the sole and exclusive property of Wesco, and Customer shall have no right, title, or interest therein or thereto, except as to the use thereof subject to the Terms. Customer and its Authorized Users will not directly or indirectly create, incur, assume, or allow to exist any lien, claim, or encumbrance (each, a "Lien") on or with respect to any Products. Customer, at its own expense, will promptly pay, satisfy, or otherwise take such actions as may be necessary to keep the Products free and clear of any and all such Liens. The System is and shall at all times remain personal property notwithstanding how it or any item thereof may now be or hereafter become affixed, attached, or imbedded in resting upon real property or any improvement thereof. If requested by Wesco, Customer will promptly obtain and deliver to Wesco waivers of interest or Liens in form satisfactory to Wesco from all persons or entities claiming any interest in the real property or improvements where a System is installed or located. Wesco may attach markings to the System indicating Wesco's ownership thereof. All equipment, software, upgrades, parts, and replacements for or which are added to or become attached to, or a part of a System shall be deemed incorporated into the System and become the property of Wesco without further action on its part. Customer hereby assumes and shall bear the entire risk of loss, destruction, or damage to the System or any component thereof from any and every cause whatsoever during the Subscription Term and thereafter while any Products are in Customer's possession, custody, or control, whether or not insured. Any loss, destruction, or damage to the System shall not relieve Customer from any obligation under this Agreement.
8. ACCEPTANCE. Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the System and Services unless written notice of rejection is given to the Wesco within five (5) business days from date of delivery or activation, whichever occurs first.
9. TERM. TERMINATION. SUSPENSION.
- 9.1. The Subscription Period shall automatically renew for the period stated in the SOW. The Subscription Period and the Terms will continue until terminated in accordance with the Terms.
- 9.2. Upon expiration or termination of a Subscription, Customer shall immediately (i) discontinue use and access to the System and Services, (ii) unless otherwise stated in the SOW, return, at its sole expense, the Products to Wesco's designated location but in no event more than fifteen (15) days from the termination or expiration date, and (iii) uninstall, destroy, and delete permanently all copies of the Software, Documentation, and Confidential Information. Wesco is not responsible for obtaining or paying for any return, access, destruction, or uninstallation of the System or Services.
- 9.3. Wesco may terminate, in whole or in part, any Subscription and the Terms (i) immediately if Wesco considers it necessary to prevent or terminate any actual or suspected prohibited use (e.g., material breach) or to comply with applicable law, (ii) in the event a breach by Customer, by giving ten (10) days' prior written notice thereof; unless Customer cures the breach prior to the expiration of such ten (10) day period, (iii) in the event Customer or Authorized User breaches the EULA, or (iv) for convenience upon notice to Customer, provided Wesco shall refund Customer for any pre-paid Subscription amounts for unused Products, Software, and/or Services. Any termination under part (i), (ii) or (iii) of this section that is later determined to be wrongful or incorrect shall automatically be treated as and/or converted to a termination under part (iv) that is retroactive to the date of the termination notice originally sent under part (i) or (ii).
- 9.4. In the event Customer elects to cancel or terminate a Subscription prior to the expiration of the Subscription Period, Customer shall (i) remain liable for any and all amounts due for the remainder of the Subscription Period, (ii) be liable for a cancellation fee (based on the full Subscription fee) plus shipping costs to return the Products, (iii) not be entitled to any refund or credit of fees paid or payable hereunder or any unused portions of such Subscription, and (iv) be liable for any applicable manufacturer cancellation charges. In the event a Subscription is terminated or expires, all licenses granted therein shall also terminate. Service coverage may not be restored or reinstated following such cancellation or termination.
- 9.5. In addition to any other remedies provided under the Terms or applicable law, Wesco may exercise any reclamation rights and/or suspend or terminate a Subscription with immediate effect if Customer: (i) fails to pay any amount owed to Wesco when due; (ii) fails to comply with any of its obligations herein; (iii) experiences an adverse change in financial position or becomes a credit risk; or (iv) becomes insolvent, is placed in receivership, or becomes a party to a reorganization or assignment for the benefit of creditors, to the extent permissible under law (each, an "Insolvency Event").
- 9.6. After expiration or termination of a Subscription, Customer agrees that Wesco

- has no obligation to retain Customer Data, which may be permanently deleted as part of Wesco's record and information management and in accordance with applicable laws. If any Customer Data is stored, Customer is solely responsible for retrieving that Customer Data.
- 9.7. Customer's right to access and use the Platform or Software, and any portion thereof, is subject to Wesco's or the manufacturer's end-of-life policy. Upon the end-of-life date of the Platform or Software or any feature therein (as described in the end-of-life policy), Customer's right to access and use the Platform, Software or feature will terminate.
- 9.8. Subject to the limitations and other provisions of the Terms, any provision that, in order to give proper effect to its intent, should survive such expiration or termination, shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Terms.
10. RECOMMENDATIONS. Customer acknowledges and agrees that any drawings, designs, suggestions, recommendations, or advice as to the Platform, Products, Software, or Services including installation or use recommendations (collectively, "Recommendations") are provided "as-is, where-is" and are for informational and conceptual purposes only. Customer acknowledges that in the event it follows any such Recommendations, it does so at its own risk and agrees that Wesco will not be liable for any damage, claims, liabilities, or losses suffered by Customer or any third-party, directly or indirectly, due to Customer following any Recommendations. Any legal or regulatory compliance obligations shall remain Customer's sole responsibility, and nothing herein is intended to shift any such burden from Customer to Wesco.
11. WARRANTY.
- 11.1. Product and Software Warranty. Wesco is a reseller of Products and Software and shall transfer and assign to Customer any and all transferable warranties made to Wesco by the manufacturer of the Products and Software. See attached Exhibit A, incorporated by reference, for additional information, if any, on warranties provided by the applicable manufacturer(s) of the Products and Software. Unless otherwise specified in a writing signed by Wesco, Wesco provides no independent warranty for any Products and Software. Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for any alleged non-conforming part, defect, failure, inadequacy, or breach of any warranty related to Products and Software (collectively, "Defects") shall be limited to those warranties and remedies provided by the manufacturers or licensor thereof, if any. Wesco is not responsible for obtaining or paying for access to the Products, uninstalling installed Products, delivering replacement Products to the installation site, or installing replacement Products. Wesco's obligations under this section 11.1 will be void unless Customer provides Wesco with notice of the Defect within thirty (30) calendar days of the date Customer discovered or should have discovered the Defect. Customer shall contact Wesco prior to contacting the manufacturer or licensor. In the event Customer provides notice of a Defect to the manufacturer or licensor, Customer shall immediately notify and engage Wesco on any and all discussions and actions to be taken with such manufacturer. Wesco DOES NOT WARRANT that the Services and Software will be free from errors or defects, free from cyber threats or events, impenetrable, or compatible with other software or system that may be sold by Wesco or will meet Customer's needs or operate without interruption. Wesco DOES NOT WARRANT that the Services and Software will provide fail-safe performance when used in hazardous environments, including any application in which the failure of the Services and Software could lead directly to death, personal injury, or severe physical or property damage. If Wesco supplies any Products and Software which include open-source software, Wesco is not liable for defects in title or quality of the information, software, or documentation, or for ensuring that it is correct, accurate, free of third-party property rights and copyrights, complete and/or usable. Material Safety Data Sheets ("MSDS") for hazardous substances are prepared and supplied by the manufacturers of the Products and Software. The Parties acknowledge and agree that (i) each location where the System and Services will be utilized has a different design, configuration, or layout which may impact the functionality, in whole or in part, of the System and Services, (ii) any impacted functionality, in whole or in part, does not represent that the System and Services are non-conforming, and (iii) Customer is solely and exclusively responsible for the design, configuration, or layout of all its locations.
- 11.2. Services Warranty. Wesco warrants that during the Subscription Period, the Services it provides will be performed substantially in accordance with the associated Documentation. Provided Customer promptly notifies Wesco in writing and in sufficient detail of a breach of the Services warranty in this section 11.2, as soon as is commercially practicable and in any event no later than five (5) business days after provision of the non-conforming Services, Wesco will, at its option, (a) re-perform the Services at no additional cost to Customer or (b) credit Customer the fees actually paid to Wesco associated with the non-conforming Services for the period in which the Service did not materially comply. In no event will Wesco be liable for any costs associated with or caused by any Customer delay in reporting the non-conforming Services, even if notice is provided within five (5) business days after provision of the Services. This is Customer's sole and exclusive remedy, and Wesco's sole and exclusive liability, with respect to any breach of warranty relating to the Services Wesco provides. This Services warranty is personal to Customer and may not be assigned, transferred or passed-through to any third-party. Unless otherwise explicitly agreed to by both parties in the SOW, Customer acknowledges and agrees that (i) Customer shall be solely responsible for the installation and configuration of the Products and Software, (ii) Wesco shall have no responsibility for the installation and configuration of the Products and Software, and (iii) Wesco does not provide any type of warranty whatsoever with respect to the installation and configuration of the Products and Software. - 13.2. By Customer. In addition to the obligations undertaken in sections 6.3, 11.6, and 16, Customer shall indemnify and defend Wesco and its affiliates, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors, and permitted assigns ("Indemnitees") against any claims, demands, damages, liabilities, and expenses (including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) that Indemnitees incur as a result of or in connection with: (a) any third-party claims arising from Customer's and its Authorized Users': (i) failure to obtain any consent, authorization, or license required for Indemnitees' use of Customer Data; (ii) use of the System or Services in any manner (e.g., solely or in combination) not expressly permitted by the Terms or the applicable EULA or specifications provided by the Product or Software manufacturer or provider of Services; (iii) misuse, modifications, enhancements, or programming to the System or Services, including but not limited to intellectual property infringement claims based on the Customer's improper use of the System or Services; (iv) breach of its obligations, representations, and warranties under the Terms; or (v) gross negligence or other act or omission in connection with the performance of its obligations under the Terms; (b) Indemnitees' compliance with any technology, designs, instructions, or requirements, including any specifications provided by Customer or a third-party on Customer's behalf; and (c) any reasonable costs and attorneys' fees and expenses required for Indemnitees to respond to a subpoena, court order, or other official government inquiry regarding Customer's use of the System or Services. Failure to provide timely notice that prejudices the indemnifying party shall relieve the indemnifying party of its obligations under the Terms to the extent the indemnifying party has been prejudiced, and the failure to provide timely notice shall relieve the indemnifying party of any obligation to reimburse the indemnified party for its attorneys' fees incurred prior to notification.

- 13.4. The foregoing indemnities are personal to Wesco and Customer and may not be transferred or assigned to anyone. This section 13 states the parties' exclusive remedies for any claims arising under sections 13.1 and 13.2, other than any remedies that may be available against third-party manufacturers or providers of the Products, Software, or Services.

- 13.5.
